

2024 Junior Fed Beef Career & Leadership Program

The Junior Fed Beef Career & Leadership Program is designed for youth who have demonstrated a desire to pursue a career related to the fed beef industry. This tour is designed to educate participants on feedyard operations and career opportunities in the fed beef industry. Students will participate in operation problem solving and leadership activities. Applicants must be incoming high school juniors or seniors for the 2024-2025 school year and be at least 16 years old at time of program.

Objectives

1. Introduce all aspects of the fed beef industry with an emphasis on feedyard operations and confined cattle feeding;
2. Build cognitive thinking skills through problem solving and leadership activities;
3. Allow participants the opportunity to interact with leading industry representatives; and
4. Option for participants to return to their local communities and participate in a job shadow program with a local feedyard and share new knowledge through local, county and/or regional programs.

Criteria for Acceptance

4-H or FFA membership is NOT required.

Applicants should be incoming juniors and seniors in high school and 16 to 18 years of age at the time of the program.

Applicants should have an interest in exploring career opportunities in the cattle feeding or beef industries.

Selected participants will be required to document that they will be able to participate the entire tour time. There will be no exceptions. Also, participants will be encouraged to give presentations to local residents, civic groups, potential beef consumers and classmates on the economic importance and career opportunities in the fed beef industry.

Participants will have the opportunity to participate in a job shadow with a feedyard operation close to their hometown following the conclusion of the program. This will give the participant additional real-world experience in daily feedyard operations.

Applicants must demonstrate ability to actively participate in educational seminars, work in teams to reach outlined objectives, display self-motivation to implement and carry out educational programs, and complete assignments.

Applicants must be willing to conduct themselves in a professional manner and abide by the code of conduct of the program. Applicants must be willing to accept the consequences of misbehavior.

Applicants will be reviewed for the following qualities:

Leadership Integrity

Communication Skills

Extra-Curricular Activities

Potential for Growth

Commitment to Participate

Ability to Self-Motivate

Participants

The selection committee shall select 20 participants from the qualified applicants; however, the selection committee reserves the right to determine the number of students selected. Participants will be selected without regard to gender, race, disability, religion or ethnic origin. Applicants who meet the eligibility requirements will be evaluated on the information obtained from the application form and references.

Important Dates

March 2024	Program information distributed to FFA instructors, 4-H agents and leaders, and feedyard management; applications made available
May 2, 2024	Applications due to the Texas Cattle Feeders Association office
May 17, 2024	Students will be notified
May 31, 2024	Registration fee due ($125)
June 25 – June 28, 2024	Program Dates

Expectations

The program participants will be expected to actively participate in all required dates and activities with:

-  An open and inquiring mind;
-  A willingness to learn;
-  A respect for opinions of those not in agreement with their own; and
-  A commitment to communicate their activities and experiences.

Attendance Requirements

The participant will be required to attend the entire program. The only exceptions will be for a family emergency, illness, natural disaster or legal requirements. If you know you have another obligation during the proposed dates, please do not apply.

Expenses

Financial Obligation

The registration fee for this program is $125 per student. This program is sponsored by Texas Cattle Feeders Association and its members, Allied Industry Sponsors, Texas AgriLife Extension and West Texas A&M University.

Incidentals

All incidental expenses (snacks, souvenirs, etc.) incurred by the participants will be paid by the participants.

Meals

All meals will be provided throughout the program, thanks to our sponsoring feedyards and Allied Industry sponsor companies. Participants will only be financially responsible for snacks and additional food they may desire.

Transportation

Participants will be responsible for providing transportation to/from Amarillo/Canyon, TX. We can provide transportation to and from the airport if you choose to fly.

Dress Code

As with any distinguished program, participants should always present themselves in a professional manner. There will be relaxation time; however, there will be no T-shirts that market, advertise or insinuate anything that would be deemed inappropriate (if you have to ask, then it is probably not acceptable). For activities at the WT Rec Center, casual gear and appropriate swim wear is acceptable. Most appropriate wear will be nice casual. This is defined as young men wearing nice, pressed jeans with no holes, with a collared shirt. Young ladies required casual wear is defined as pressed jeans with no holes, with a blouse that is long enough to be tucked in. Also, for safety reasons, boots or closed toe shoes will be required for all program activities. More direct information on the proper dress code will be defined once the itinerary is finalized.
